Giza Pyramids and Old Cairo Tour From Safaga Port Itinerary

The Giza Pyramids, the only remaining example of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, are absolutely breathtaking and should be seen if one were to visit Cairo only once. It will strike you how much time has been etched into each of these enormous stone works of art when you stand in front of them. Seen peering over the pyramids, its intriguing visage fixed on the future, the enigmatic Sphinx is not far away.

We'll then go to Old Cairo, which is a wonderful example of Egyptian history. We'll tour historic Islamic and Coptic artifacts before ending the day at the famous Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where Cairo's heartbeat comes alive. Spices, jewelry, and textiles, among other uniquely Egyptian things, are abundant in these small alleys and street seller stalls. To truly experience the full effect and feel authentic emotions, haggle with local vendors.
