Day 3

Edfu & Kom Ombo

In the early morning, we set out for the splendid Temple of Edfu. Some of the best-preserved ancient relics can be found in this historically significant masterpiece dedicated to the falcon deity Horus. As the sun rises, we get closer to the mysterious Temple of Edfu, a remarkable artifact from another era with an antique mural celebrating the falcon god Horus that provides a rare view into the past.

Following a delicious dinner, we will proceed to the legendary Kom Ombo. The twin temples devoted to Horus, the Elder (also known as the Falcon God Haroeis), and the Crocodile deity Sobek, the cosmic creator and fertility deity, are found here. Enjoy the tastes of a day packed with delectable cuisine, fascinating historical places, and a great lunch.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 4

Aswan - High Dam and Philae Temple

We arrive in Aswan and sail along the dazzling Nile waves. The journey comes to an end when breakfast is served in the morning.

Following that, tourists may see the beautiful High Dam, the fascinating Philae Temple, and the Unfinished Obelisk. After a nice lunch, sit back and enjoy the surroundings.

After a full supper, unwind in Aswan's evening.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.
