Once you arrive at the Luxor International Airport, a representative from Your Egypt Tours will welcome you and provide you with any required transportation and instructions. Along with safe transportation, the Oberoi Zahra Luxury Cruise boarding process is effortless.

Here's a glimpse of your day's itinerary:

Later in the day, we depart from Luxor Port and have an exquisite lunch.

A lengthier historical excursion will necessitate visits to the Karnak and Luxor temples. To round off the day, treat yourself to a substantial meal.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner.

Day 2

Luxor's West Bank Wonders

After a delicious breakfast, we will make our way to the West Bank of ancient Thebes, arriving in the Valley of the Kings to see the tombs of notable characters like King Tut and Ramesses the Sixth.

Dier El Madina and Medinet Habu, two well-known ancient ruins, as well as Memnon's massive Colossi, will leave you blown away.

As the day continues, a delectable meal is prepared for on-board consumption. Enjoy the ship's facilities before completing the evening with a delicious supper.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 3

Edfu & Kom Ombo

We embark early in the morning to visit the majestic Edfu temple. Some of the world's most valuable and superbly preserved stones may be found in this colossal architectural marvel dedicated to the falcon deity Horus. We arrive soon before dawn at the majestic Temple of Edfu. This magnificent history from another age offers a unique viewpoint on history. The treasures of Horus, the falcon god, are preserved here.

After a substantial breakfast, we go to the prominent Kom Ombo. As you can see, there are two temples. Horus the Elder, also known as Haroeis, the Falcon God, is honored with a temple. The Crocodile, Sobek, the cosmic creator, and fertility deity marks the opposing side. Enjoy a tasty meal, fascinating historical sights, and an intriguing evening for a beautiful day.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 4
